

The NAB is only trying to protect itself from competition. XM and Sirius Satellite Radio services should be allowed to deliver localized programming on their repeater networks. Thank you.